MISSISSIPPI IS MOVING

Mississippi's economic-industrial progress today is making news throughout the nation. Growing numbers of investors, industrialists and business leaders are being attracted by the diverse opportunities offered by Mississippi's wealth of raw materials, agricultural and forestry resources, advantageous locations and sincere, proven workers.

The most outstanding advantage offered by Mississippi today is the expressed attitude of her people toward business, industry and progress. This has been demonstrated time and time again — in the actions of the Legislature, in the community-betterment programs throughout the State, in the willingness of Mississippians to give of themselves, their time, energy and money to make positive contributions to the continued growth and development of their State.

The progress of Mississippi will continue. Mississippi is on the march and Mississippians throughout the State are united in their will to work for a better tomorrow. The railroads serving Mississippi and their 4500 Mississippi employees pledge to do their part to strengthen and to encourage this continued advancement of Mississippi and all Mississippians.

AEC AGREEABLE TO PROPOSED CONVERSION NUCLEAR REACTOR

The Atomic Energy Commission has indicated that it is "agreeable" to a proposed electric company study possible conversion of one of the government's Savannah River nuclear reactors to generate "electricity" with the study "subject to the development of terms satisfactory to both parties," according to O. J. Watson, Jr., president, Mississippi Power Company, Gulfport.

Twelve southeastern electric companies, including the Gulfport-based utility, recently made the joint proposal to the AEC that they be permitted to make the study to determine the technical and economic feasibility of converting the reactor, now scheduled to be withdrawn from plutonium production at Aiken, S. C. The companies plan to spend $300,000 to $400,000 for the study and expect it would be completed by the end of this year.

W. B. McGuire, president of Duke Power Co., and chairman of the 12-company Management Committee, was advised by the AEC that it was willing to discuss terms for the study. O. J. Miller, retired executive vice president of Duke Power and now executive vice president of Carolina Power & Light Nuclear Power Associates, is to head negotiations for the electric companies on the proposed study. The 12 companies are Duke Power, Carolina Power & Light Co., South Carolina Electric & Gas Co., Georgia Power Co., Savannah Electric Power Co., Alabama Power Co., Florida Power & Light Co., Florida Power Corp., Gulf Power Corp., Mississippi Power Co., Tampa Electric Co., and Virginia Electric Power Co. Duke, Carolina Power, S. C. Electric & Gas, and Virginia Electric are operating as Carolina's Virginia Nuclear Power Associates, a prototype nuclear-electric generating plant at Parr, S. C., with AEC participation, for research and development experience.

REPRESENTATIVES UP FOR RE-ELECTION FROM MISSISSIPPI

All five of Mississippi's Representatives in Congress qualified for re-election today.

Representing an average of 22 years of legislative service, the delegation tops most States in all important seniority and major Committee assignments.

The senior Member of the group, William M. Colmer of Pascagoula, has been in Congress since 1933. The junior Member is John Bell Williams of Raymond now serving his eighteenth year.

James L. Whitten, Charleston, S.C., is serving his second year in 1961.

Thomas G. Abernethy, Okolona, and Arthur Winstead, Philadelphia, entered the House in 1943.

Abernethy, of the First District, ranks sixth on the Committee on Agriculture, and second on the Committee on the District of Columbia. He chairs the Agriculture Subcommittee on Research and Extension, and serves as ranking member of the Agriculture Subcommittee on Cotton, Dairying, and Consumer Relations.

Second District Representative Whitten is now sixth ranking member of the Appropriations Committee but will move up next year. He is Chairman of the Agriculture Subcommittee and Member of Public Works and Defense Subcommittees.

Williams of the Third District is ranking Democrat and Vice Chairman of the Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce. He heads the Subcommittee on Transportation and Aeronautics, having jurisdiction over surface, water and air transportation. He is also a Member of the Committee on the District of Columbia.

Winstead from the Fourth District holds the No. 5 position on the Armed Services Committee but will move up one notch when Chairman Carl Vinson retires this year. Winstead oversees all real estate and construction projects of the far-flung military establishment as Chairman of the Subcommittee on Real Estate and Construction.

Colmer, representing the Fifth District, is ranking Democrat and Vice Chairman of the powerful Rules Committee which clears most bills prior to floor action, a member of the National Forest Reservation Commission and Chairman of the Southern Group in the House of Representatives. Only seven of 435 Members have served longer than Colmer.

NURSING CARE NEEDED MORE THAN EVER NOW

There are more nurses today than ever before in history — but there aren't nearly enough. The shortage of nurses is a serious problem.

Where are the nurses working today? Besides the 350,000 hospital nurses, you'll find nurses in factories, in offices, in schools, in the armed forces and in public health. They work to prevent sickness as well as to cure it. Altogether, 550,000 nurses in uniform serve on the front lines in our fighting war against disease and disability.

The 25 million patients in our general hospitals in 1962 was an all out high. Professional Nurses account for 367,000 of the hospital positions but 21 per cent of the positions are vacant nationally.

In Mississippi there are vacancies in all types of positions. There are 172 Registered Nurses per 100,000 population. To meet the nursing needs of this state there should be 300 nurses per 100,000 population.

Employment of untrained aides has led to an alarming delution of the quality of service. This fact is pointed out in the article No One To Nurse The Sick in the McCall's magazine, March 1964 issue.

Who is taking care of the sick members of your family? What is your community doing about the Nursing shortage?

SELECTIVE ENFORCEMENT' HIGHWAY PROGRAM PROVING EFFECTIVE

Statistical evidence of the continuing effectiveness of the "selective enforcement" program instituted by Commissioner of Public Safety T. B. Birdsong during August of 1963 was released through the Accident Records Division. According to Al Richburg, Assistant Director, the overall traffic fatalities for the first two months of 1964 were 14 per cent below the same period for 1963.

Col. Birdsong elaborated on the figures by stating, "This overall 14 per cent decrease represents 14 lives saved over the same period last year. The fatalities on city streets were the same, but on county roads there was a 45 per cent decrease and on the state and federal highways the Highway Patrol is charged with enforcing there was a 6 per cent decrease. We feel that our 'selective enforcement' is paying dividends.

"This 14 per cent reduction is significant this early in the year. If we can maintain the same rate throughout the year we will save over 90 lives. We feel that this reduction in fatalities is due to a number of factors, not the least of which is the good Motor Vehicle Inspection program we have. Added to this is the cooperation between enforcement agencies, excellent coverage by the news media and public cooperation by our drivers."

THE POWER TO STAY

An anchor seems like dead weight, doesn't it? But what mariner would sail without it? For an anchor is not dead weight. It commands the tremendous force of gravity in a wild, raging sea. It can grip solid land to fight driving wind or swirling current!

A few men have thought they could go farther faster without religious faith . . . until the squalls found them drifting helplessly on bitter shoals!

God gave us forces of motion and progress. We see . . . aspire . . . achieve.

But the power to go is treacherous without the power to stay.

So God gave us the Truth our churches offer every human heart.

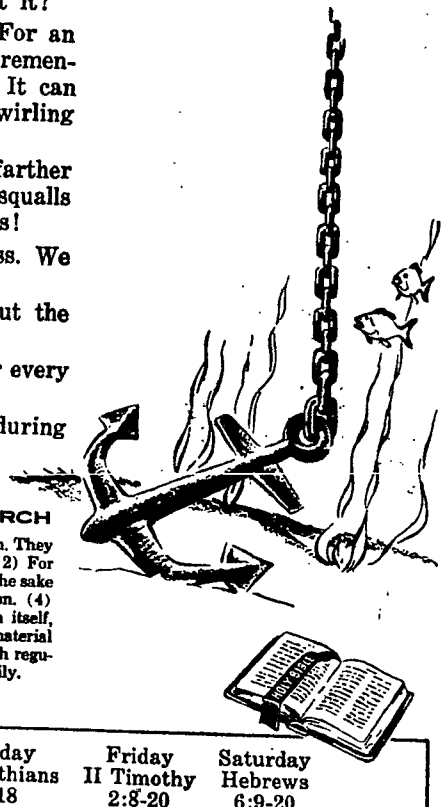

That Truth is man's spiritual grip on the enduring . . . the eternal.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and read your Bible daily.

After all the rains we have had it is best to go to the heads of bays than to fish in the main streams where the water is still on the shady side. The farther you go the better the water.

Fly fishing is one of our best sports and by using surface baits from now on good results should be had. If you don't know how to use a fly you had better learn.

Another top sport is golfing. There is always something doing at the Pass Christian Golf Course which is always in perfect condition under the guidance of Dick Tarlton and the latest event coming up is the Member-Guest Tournament scheduled for Saturday and Sunday, March 21st and 22nd. Medal play - full handicap. The fee will be $2.50. Prizes and merchandise certificates. Each non-member must be a guest of a member says Herbert Ratenburg, co-chairman.

As a reminder to all scoters the Bay St. Louis Division meeting will be held at the BREA building at 7:45 March 28, for all Division officers and unit leaders. Unit leaders are needed and invited to attend.

The frog season will soon open. There are certain regulations to be followed. Frogs may be taken in Mississippi by gilling and hand grabbing but in Louisiana, no device which will puncture the skin or discolor the meat can be used. It is unlawful for any person to carry or have in his possession any shotgun, rifle or firearm while taking or hunting frogs. The minimum size limit for common bull frogs is 5 1/2 inches and the southern bull frog (Lagoon frog) is 3 1/2 inches. There are plenty frogs hereabout and hunting them is lots of fun. The meat is excellent for eating.

A. F. Innis and Robert F. Mayhue with the Delaware Corporation were over last weekend mingling with friends. Both are ardent fishermen and enjoy golf. Hope to be seeing you fellows more often.

Horace C. Olivier, Chief Boatwain Mate retired, is a newcomer to our midst. He has a home in Waveland and enjoys fishing and other sports. You can get plenty of all Chief.

Edgar J. Kehlor of New Orleans was over visiting his friend George Bernos last week. Edgar has a home in Waveland and expects to come over often and catch up on his fishing. Will be looking for you.

LONDON - An English brewery worker has been retired with a gift of a certificate entitling him to free drinks at 2,500 bars. Bet a lot of fellows envy this guy!

A number of our local racing fans were at the Fair Grounds last Saturday to witness the running of the $50,000 added New Orleans Handicap.

The racing season closes this Saturday after a successful season.

Haven't seen one, but reports say a whale shark may be as long as 60 feet.

Keep an eye on the birds when salt water fishing. They may hang around waiting for the fish to start striking and move in close to shore. Follow them in and get a chance to catch 'em.

It is said by old time fishermen that fish strike best during some two hours of the day. If you go fishing don't leave just because the fish are not biting. Stay with them. Of course the best time for catching fish is early in the morning and late in the afternoon. Very few fish are caught during mid-day.

When fishing for salt water fish watch other boats that gather together. They are usually catching fish. Be a good sport, go to the spot very slowly, put your anchor down quietly and be careful not to drop things on the bottom of the boat. Talking does not scare fish away, but vibration does.

Fish, depending on the species, feed mainly on insects, worms, shell fish, crustaceans and other fish, living or dead. If you will watch when cleaning fish what they are feeding on, get that kind of bait. Perch and green trout feed mostly on worms, insects and any live baits such as crickets, roaches, lizards, crayfish, grubs and fiddlers.

Salt water fish feed on shrimp, (live or dead) small mullets and minnows. Sheepshead love fiddlers which can be caught in sandy soils on the beach and on the banks of bayous. Catch your own baits and save money.

C. C. McDONALD, SR. "Mac" known to most everyone as C. C. has hunted, fished and camped all his life. He loves the outdoors and when with his friends is a hard guy to beat. At golf he was also a fellow who loved the game.

We of the older group spent many hours enjoying ourselves at all sports. Mac is preparing to go back to fly fishing after a long layoff. Handicapped a little, he is always ready to go. Ask anyone who knows him.

HAVE BIRTHDAY

Mrs. Caroline R. Farnsworth of her 64th birthday with a gathering Sunday afternoon at the home of her nephew, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Farnsworth. Over for the day were her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Farnsworth and Mrs. Paul Farnsworth of New Orleans. Also visiting her in the afternoon were Mrs. Annie Hale and Mrs. Helene Warden of Pascagoula.

ST. LOUIS SENIOR DAY MARCH 30

Plans are being made for the 14th annual observance of March 14 as the University of Southern Mississippi Senior Day, which will be held locally at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Haas at 712 S. Beach Blvd. according to Mrs. June Coffey, president of the Hancock County group.

This will also mark the 54th anniversary of the founding of the University on March 30, 1910. The Alumni Association, sponsor of the project, voted at the 1954 Homecoming to establish the custom and tradition of former students meeting on this date around the world with the idea that it would create a stronger tie between the alumnus and his Alma Mater. Attendance and total number of meetings reported during this time indicate that the observance has met with success. Reports from previous meetings follow: 1955, 46; 1956, 56; 1957, 54.

373 MILLION SPENT BY SOUTHERN BELL IN 1963

Southern Bell Telephone Company spent a record-breaking $373 million in 1963 for facilities to expand and improve communications services for a changing, growing South.

President Ben S. Gilmer reported this giant contribution to the south's economic growth in the firm's 1963 Annual Report released today in Bay St. Louis, one of the 188 exchanges which Southern Bell serves in Mississippi.

The year 1963 was Southern Bell's second consecutive record-breaking year in building new facilities. The Company spent $23 million more in 1963 than in 1962.

Demand for telephone service continued strong in 1963, the report stated. There was an increase of 407,000 Southern Bell telephones in 1963 to achieve a total of 1,647,000 and moved another 789,000. At the end of the year Southern Bell operated 1,435,000 telephones.

Residence customers with individual lines increased from 35 per cent at the end of 1962 to 45 per cent at the end of 1963. Ten years ago only 25 per cent of Southern Bell residence customers had individual lines. Only even per cent of Southern Bell residence customers now have party service compared to 35 per cent 10 years ago, the report said.

The area served by Southern Bell has seen increased industrialization, said Mr. Gilmer, and this has resulted in an increasing standard of living for the people of the South.

Southern Bell has spent three billion dollars in the past 10 years to expand and improve its services in the South, Mr. Gilmer said.

"Our expenditures for plant improvement, expansion and cost of operation have a substantial impact on the South's economy," he said.

In 1963, Southern Bell's operating expenses and taxes, most of which flowed into the region's economy, amounted to $351 million. Of this, $240 million was paid in taxes to the Federal government, state governments and to 5,700 local taxing units. This amount does not include the ten per cent Federal Excise Tax on local and long distance service which was $88 million in 1963. Telephone service is the only household utility with such a tax, the report stated, despite efforts to repeal it. Total wage cost was $413 million in 1963.

WHAT YOU CAN EXPECT OF MODERN NURSING SERVICE

In today's world of rapid change, few fields of endeavor have moved as quickly as medicine. The discoveries of recent years have brought such benefits to human beings as a lengthened life span, a lowered maternal and child death rate, the prevention of some diseases, the cure of others. Changes in attitudes and philosophy have led to increased attention to the patient's total needs.

The following statement was prepared by a Committee to Draft a Patient's Bill of Rights. Members of the committee included two former patients, a physician, a hospital administrator, a social worker, a licensed practical nurse, a student nurse, a public health staff nurse, a psychiatric nurse, a government research supervisor in a voluntary hospital.

"The patient has a right to expect:

That he will receive the nursing care necessary to help him regain or maintain his maximum degree of health.

That the nursing personnel who care for him are qualified, through education, experience and personality, to carry out the services for which they are responsible.

That the nursing personnel caring for him will be sensitive to his feelings and responsive to his needs.

That, within the limits determined by his doctor, the patient and his family will be taught about his illness so that the patient can help himself, and his family can understand and help him.

That plans will be made with him and his family, or if necessary for him, so that, if possible, continuing nursing and other necessary services will be available to him throughout the period of his need. These plans will involve the use of all appropriate personal and community resources.

That nursing personnel will assist in keeping adequate records and reports and will treat with confidence all personal matters that relate to the patient.

That efforts will be made by nursing personnel to adjust the surroundings of the patient so as to help him maintain or recover his health."

TO CONDUCT TRAINING

Mrs. Marcia Hughes, home agent, will conduct a project leaders training for the April meetings at 10 a. m., Tuesday, March 17 and a 4-H leaders training for attainment day at 10 a. m. Wednesday, March 18, at the agricultural center.

Share were $2.10 in 1963 compared to $2.07 for 1962. Discussing the need for "vast amounts of new capital," Mr. Gilmer said the Company "must continue to strive for a level of earnings that will enable us to do more quickly more of the things we want to do to make our service better and more useful."

Residence extensions increased, by 126,000 in 1963. This produced a new high of 34 residence extensions per 100 residence main telephones.

Sixty-nine per cent of Southern Bell customers can now dial their own long distance calls.

Pointing out the importance of providing communications in the defense of the nation, the report stated that the largest military maneuver in peacetime history gave Southern Bell and its employees an opportunity to demonstrate what they can do on an emergency basis. The month-long Operation Swift Strike III, centered in South Carolina, required the night and day work of many Southern Bell employees.

TIMBER SALE OUTLOOK GOOD

Mississippi timber growers can look forward to steadily improving pulpwood markets as increasing demands are seen for pine and hardwood. Forest economists have stated that, although several other states in the South can now boast of large volumes of standing timber, the growth capacity of our timberlands is second to none. This means that as landowners continue to apply scientific management practices to their woodlands, the state will become more and more attractive to industries using wood as a raw material. Growing, manufacturing and distributing timber products provide jobs for more than 90,000 workers.
